President Remengesau Congratulates New Board Members and Thanks the Senate for their Continued Support

President Tommy E. Remengesau, Jr. congratulates thirteen (13) Board members whose appointments were confirmed by the Senate during the eight day of their fifth regular session on Tuesday, January 16, 2018 at the National Capitol.

The Senate confirmed the reappointments of Theodore Dulei Subris, John C. Thing, Lakolani Olngellel, and Father John Paul Illilau to the Palau National Parole Board; the reappointments of Emiliano Kazuma and Masao Esebei to the Board of Land Surveyors Examiners; appointments of Yosko Malsol and Huan Anastacio and the reappointments of Alfonso Uchel Megreos and Gregorio Ngirmang to the Palau Language Commission; the appointment of Romana Wong to Palau Community College Board of Trustees; and the reappointment of Hanenore K. Belechl and appointment of Pastor Hiob Ngirachemoi to the Palau Ethics Commission.

The newly confirmed members will greatly contribute the mandates of these important Boards of the Republic. President Remengesau further extends his appreciation to the Senate of the 10th Olbiil Era Kelulau for their continued support.
