President Remengesau and Swiss Ambassador Reichlin Exchange Dialogue on Sustainable Development

On April 10, President Tommy E. Remengesau, Jr. received Switzerland Ambassador Andrea Reichlin during a courtesy call made at the National Capitol in Ngerulmud.

President Remengesau and Ambassador Reichlin exchanged dialogue on matters relating to sustainable development, renewable energy and climate change. He further shared Palau's continued national commitment to address climate change, renewable energy, sustainable development and sustainable management of resources locally and internationally.

Ambassador Reichlin who is exploring different ways of connecting the Republic of Palau to potential partners and technical support in the areas of renewable energy shared Switzerland's experiences in the matter.

During the meeting, Ambassador Reichlin extended the Government of Switzerland's invitation to host President Remengesau in Europe in the future.
