President Remengesau fills Board vacancies

Seven Presidential nominees have been confirmed to fill vacancies on critical boards and commissions in the government.

During its most recent session, the Senate confirmed the presidential appointments of the following individuals to serve on various boards:

- Jennifer Koskelin-Gibbons to serve a second 2-year term with the Governing Board of the Financial Institutions Commission.
- Stalin Pedro to fill a vacancy on the Board of Directors of the Palau National Communications Corporation.
- Vance Polycarp to serve as a member of the Governing Board of the Financial Institutions Commission.
- Temmy L. Shmull was confirmed to a 4-year term with the Civil Service Pension Plan Board of Trustees.
- Ruth Subris Wong and Gail Mara Rengiil will serve a 3-year terms with the Palau Board of Accountancy.
- Visia N. Alonz to a 2-year term with the Palau Board of Accountancy.

The Senate is expected to review and act on several pending board nominations, including appointees to critical posts for the Foreign Investment Board and the Palau National Communications Corporation. Boards and Commissions oversee policies governing the administrative operations and functions of critical government entities, from utilities and communications to banking and retirement programs.

President Remengesau says he appreciates the Senate' support and will continue to work with the senators on pending appointments.
