	: _____	_____

8. TRAVEL, TRANSPORTATION AND MOVING

8.1 For recruitment and repatriation, travel and transportation expenses shall be paid by the Government as follows:

8.1.1 Economy class air transportation by the shortest direct route, for Employee and dependents of Employee from the Employee's designated point of recruitment to his/her duty station. The Employee's point of recruitment is _____.

8.1.2 Per-diem for Employee is to be at established Government rates not to exceed necessary travel time by the shortest direct route from point of recruitment to duty station. Necessary travel time includes an allowance for an overnight layover enroute for travel that exceeds more than twelve hours total travel time.

8.1.3 Transportation of household goods and personal effects not to exceed 350 pounds gross weight of air parcel post for Employee with dependents or 200 pounds gross weight for Employee without dependents; provided such shipments originate within three (3) months of the date of entry on duty, unless extended by the Director of the Bureau of Public Service System (hereinafter referred to as the Director of BPSS).

8.1.4 Upon completion of the agreed upon period of contractual service, Government shall pay all return travel and transportation expenses to the point of recruitment or another destination not to exceed the cost to the point of recruitment, to the same extent and subject to the same limitations set forth in subparagraphs 8.1.1 through 8.1.3 above.

9. HOLIDAYS

Employee shall be released from work with pay on all legal holidays. In the event that Employee is required by Government to work on a holiday, Employee shall be allowed compensatory time off with pay equal to twice the number of hours worked on said holiday. Time off shall be taken only at times approved by Employees' supervisor.

10. COMPENSATION AND WORK SCHEDULES

10.1 Employee's workday and workweek may vary from time-to-time according to the needs of Government. Every effort will be made to maintain a reasonable five-day, forty-hour workweek.

10.2 Employee is not eligible for overtime pay, extra holiday pay (beyond regular compensation), or compensatory time off except to the extent allowed in Section 9 preceding.

11. HOUSING

11.1 Housing shall be provided in the following form of:

11.2 Except in the instance in which Employee receives a housing allowance, furniture and appliances shall be provided by Government or lessor as needed in all free housing provided. Both a washing machine and a dryer will also be furnished within the residence, or in the case of a multi-family dwelling access to laundry facilities on the premises will be available.

11.3 Employee shall pay for electricity, water and sewer utilities charges. Telephone installation, disconnection, and monthly use fees and charges for personal long distance communications must be paid by Employee.

11.4 Employee is responsible for keeping the interior, including furnishings, of the Government-owned or -leased house, apartment, etc. in which he/she resides in good condition, excepting normal wear-and-tear. Additionally, if Employee occupies a Government-owned house he/she shall be responsible for upkeep of yards and grounds. Lawns shall be kept mowed and raked. Junk such as abandoned vehicles and storage containers must not be kept in the yard or surrounding grounds. Continued unsightly conditions may result in eviction.

12. VEHICLE USAGE

Employee shall not be furnished a vehicle by Government. Government vehicles are available for use for Government business purposes only, either during or after normal working hours. Proper authorization, including a Government operator's license, is required before Employee may drive a Government vehicle.

13. WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION

Employee may be entitled to compensation for time loss and disability for injuries or illnesses occurring on-the-job according to the terms of a worker's compensation insurance policy held by Government. Employee is responsible for reporting to Employee's supervisor as soon as practical any on-the-job related injury or illness.

14. LIMITATIONS OF GOVERNMENT LIABILITY

14.1 Employee is advised that Government provides no insurance except that described in Section 13 preceding. Government assumes no liability for loss or damage in other circumstances. It is recommended that Employee provide his own insurance coverage, including but not limited to:

14.1.1 Health and life insurance, including coverage for dependents where applicable. However, Employee shall become eligible for any and all health insurance benefits offered to Public Service System employees at Government expense at any time during the duration of this Contract.

15. LEAVE

15.1 Annual leave shall accrue to Employee at the rate of ____ hours per pay period. Employee on an initial contract shall be entitled to use of annual leave only after having been employed for a continuous period of ninety (90) days without a break in service. Advance approval is required to use annual leave.

15.2 The maximum accumulation of annual leave for Employee shall be three hundred and sixty (360) hours. Any excess over such maximum shall be forfeited.

15.3 Employee shall not be entitled to payment of unused accrued annual leave upon termination of employment, provided that if Employee resigns or is otherwise terminated prior to the end of this Contract, and is unable to use the remaining balance of his annual leave prior to the termination date, or Employee is denied, as indicated in writing, the taking of annual leave by his supervisor(s), Employee shall be entitled to payment of unused accrued annual leave upon termination of employment. Employee's supervisor(s) shall make a reasonable effort to allow the taking of annual leave by Employee.

15.4 Paragraph 15.3 shall not apply to those employees under contract as of the effective date of RPPL No. 4-21, or those same employees who enter into subsequent contracts with Government. Such employees remain entitled to full payment of unused annual leave upon termination of employment, provided, however, that their most recent contract did provide for payment of unused annual leave. Employee does or does not qualify for exemption from paragraph 15.3 (exemption to be determined by Director of BPSS).

15.5 Sick leave shall accrue to Employee at the rate of four (4) hours per pay period and may be accumulated without limit. Employee is entitled to use of sick leave from the time such leave is first earned.

15.6 Where an offer and acceptance for a new period of employment is agreed upon under a new employment contract or a revised employment status such as civil service or appointment, all accrued and unused annual and sick leave credits from this Contract may be carried over, provided that there has not been a break in service in excess of one year.

15.7 Where, for good reason, Employee requires an advance of annual or sick leave, the Director of BPSS may grant up to a maximum of one-half (1/2) of the total earnable leave credits for one year from the date the request is approved or for the remainder of the employment contract, whichever is shorter. Subsequent leave earnings shall serve to replace the amount of advance leave granted and taken.

15.8 Sick leave may not be used at the end of the employment contract as a means of shortening the contract. Annual leave may not be similarly used. Annual leave may not be similarly used except in the case of Employee having been previously denied use of annual leave as described in subsection 15.3. In this situation, Employee may choose to use annual leave for such purposes rather than accept a cash payoff upon termination of employment, at the expressed written consent of Government.

15.9 Unauthorized leave or leave without pay, recorded as hours not worked, shall be deducted from Employee's pay in hourly units, based on Employee's hourly rate of pay (as calculated by dividing the annual salary by 2,080 hours and rounded to the nearest 100th of a dollar).

16. SUBSEQUENT EMPLOYMENT

Government has no obligation upon Employee's completion of this Contract to provide further employment. Government may, at its option, offer a new period of employment to Employee. However, a decision by Government not to offer a new period of employment and not execute a new employment contract shall not constitute a basis for a grievance or cause of action against Government.

17. RESIGNATION AND TERMINATION

17.1 Employment may be canceled by either Government or Employee on the giving of written notice of termination and/or resignation (by employee) at least sixty (60) calendar days prior to the effective date of cancellation of this Contract.

17.2 Under special circumstances an appeal may be made to the President to waive the advance notice requirement for Employee's termination and/or resignation of Contract. If, in the discretion of the President, it is found that there are compelling reasons and/or emergency nature, the President may waive the 60-calendar-day advance notice of termination and/or resignation and permit Employee to immediately terminate and/or resign and to allow this Contract to be canceled.

17.3 If during the term of this Contract, it is discovered that the employee has misrepresented his qualifications, that the employee is not capable of fulfilling his job duties, that the employee is not willing to perform his job duties, or if the employee abandons his position without notice, the employee will be obliged to repay Government for certain expenses as follows:

17.3.1 If this is an initial contract, Employee shall repay all Employee's expenses including travel, per diem, and shipment of household goods and personal effects. Employee shall bear the cost of his own return transportation and that of his dependents and the cost of return shipment of household goods and personal effects.

17.4 Government's liability to pay return travel and shipment of household goods and personal effects at the termination of employment is contingent on Employee initiating such travel and departing Palau or his other duty station not later than thirty (30) calendar days following the date of termination of this Contract.

18. FINAL COMPENSATION

Government may deduct from the employee's final compensation any indebtedness to Government, including travel advances, salary advances, utilities, debts created by the invocation of Section 17.3 herein, and advance leave or other allowances covering a period beyond the date of cancellation or termination of this Contract.

19. EMPLOYMENT STATUS AND TAXES

19.1 Employee is employed by the Republic of Palau National Government. Under United States Internal Revenue Service regulations, United States citizens and United States resident aliens may be subject to United States income tax. Employees working in duty stations outside of Palau may also be subject to other taxes established by governments within the jurisdiction in which Employee resides.

19.2 Employee acknowledges that the earnings provided for under this Contract are subject to the Republic of Palau Salary and Wages Tax at prevailing rates. The rates as of the effective date of this Contract is six percent (6%) upon the first $8,000, ten percent (10%) upon the amount over the first eight thousand dollars ($8,000) but not over forty thousand dollars ($40,000), and twelve percent (12%) upon the amount over the first forty thousand dollars ($40,000) of all wages and salaries. This is subject to change at any time during the duration of this Contract.

19.3 Employee acknowledges that current law requires contributions from Employee's earnings to the Republic of Palau Social Security System. The rate as of the date of this Contract is 7% on employees earned income each quarter. This is subject to change at any time during the duration of this Contract.

19.4 Employee acknowledges that the National Healthcare Financing Act requires contributions from Employee's earnings to the Medical Savings Account. The rate as of the date of this contract is 2.5% of Employee's total remuneration. This is subject to change during the duration of this contract.

20. PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATIONS:

Government does / does not require that Employee provide proof of professional licensing. If so required, Employee hereby certifies that he/she is a licensed _____ in the State(s) of _____ in the United States of America, and/or the United States territory of _____, and/or in the country of _____.

21. SPECIAL CONTRACT CONDITIONS:

Under certain special circumstances allowed by the Republic of Palau law or allowed by the Director of BPSS and the President of the Republic of Palau, section(s) of this contract may be modified. The following section(s) is/are hereby modified as follows (if no modifications, so state):

22. GOVERNMENT OBLIGATIONS CONTINGENT UPON APPROPRIATIONS:

All obligations of Government under this Contract shall be contingent upon the appropriation of funds for this Contract during applicable fiscal year(s). Government shall not be liable for any obligations under this Contract for which funds are not appropriated. At this time, no funds have been appropriated for this Contract after the fiscal year ending _____. Employee and Government expressly agree that Employee cannot reasonably rely upon Government's performance of this Contract after _____.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Employment Contract.
